Read&Write for Google Chrome with Office 365 – Highlighters, Clear and Collect Highlights

Introduction

The Highlighter tools can help users highlight, organize, and sort selected text in four different colors. The Clear Highlights tool will erase any selected highlights. The Collect Highlights tool will gather the chosen highlights, allow the user to sort highlights by colour or position and create a new Word Online document with all the highlights. This allows students to efficiently extract text when conducting research, or extract words they may not understand.

Learning Objectives

Completion of this tutorial will give you experience with the following:

- Highlighting text with various colors
- Clearing highlights
- Collecting Highlights in a new Word Online document

Case Study

Sean is a student who is completing a project on diseases and viruses in Science class. While conducting research on his assigned topic, he highlights all the causes in one color, symptoms in another color, and treatments in a different color. After he finishes highlighting, he clicks on the Collect Highlights tool. All of his highlights are sorted by colour and exported into a new Word Online document. He can now use this new document to review his refined research. He uses the Clear Highlights tool anytime he makes mistake or to erase his highlights when he is done.
